

OVERVIEW OF BIOMETRICS TECHNOLOGY

Length: 1 Hour

Presentation Overview

This presentation focuses on various methods of recognizing a person based on physiological or behavioral characteristics. Biometric technologies are fast becoming the foundation for identifying and authenticating individual users in the computerized environment.

Topics for Discussion

- Definition – Provide an explanation as to what the term biometrics actually means.
- Uses of Biometrics – Discuss the two primary uses of biometrics, identification and verification.
- How It Works – Provide some insight as to how the various biometrics devices work.
- Types of Biometrics – Discuss the two types of biometrics, behavioral and physical and provide examples of each.

Suitable Audience

Staff auditors and audit management